

MoW RSS

What is RSS?

RSS stands for Really Simple Syndication or RDF Site Summary (RSS 0.9 dan 1.0) is an application of XML (Extensible Markup Language) in accordance with the specification of the World Wide Consortium (W3C). It is a syndication format news and used as an agent to get news or online data from the web page / portal that supports this application.

RSS At MoW Portal

RSS application facility specially provided for developing a portal for the latest information regarding the latest information on MoW. Through this application, it is hoped that the Ministry of Public Works can deliver the Latest/Current Information from MoW Portal more quickly and effectively.

Steps to subscribe MoW RSS

1. At MoW homepage, click the icon  at the right corner.
2. You will see the “Subscribe Now” at the top of the website. Please click this button.
3. RSS news will be added in the respective browsers and with this, the latest news about MoW is quickly achieved.