PLUS wins UK road safety award

KUALA LUMPUR: PLUS Malaysia Bhd has become the first Asian highway company to win the Prince Michael International Road Safety Award.

The award was presented by Prince Michael of Kent to PLUS managing director Datuk Azman Ismail at The Savoy in London on Tuesday in recognition of its success in implementing safety initiatives across 1,134.1km of its highways in Malaysia.

Azman said the award proved that PLUS was a world-class highway that complied with international high safety standards.

"This confirms that PLUS is an organisation that prioritises and emphasises security," he said.

PLUS was among 23 award recipients from 70 nominations from around the world. The award ceremony was attended by more than 350 international road safety experts and professionals.

The Prince Michael International Road Safety Awards recognise achievements and innovations around the world in road safety initiatives. Bernama
